The Leader's Roundtable

A Master Class in Leadership for Senior Executives

The Leader's Roundtable is an exclusive and advanced leadership development program designed to assist CEOs, presidents, and senior executives in becoming world-class leaders. During the course of the year-long program, The Leader's Roundtable builds your personal leadership effectiveness and your company's bottom line.

- ▲ The Leader's Roundtable is led by Dr. Gerald D. Bell, a master teacher with over 40 years of successful, in-depth experience building leaders.
- ▲ Enrollment is limited to individuals who are selected for participation in the Roundtable. Members meet 12 days over the course of one calendar year in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, for comprehensive, intense, and rewarding sessions.
- ▲ Sessions focus on topics such as personal leadership effectiveness, communication, peak performance, the ten significant roles of a leader, how to select and build your team, and leading change in an organization.
- ▲ Dr. Bell and the Roundtable members then apply leadership principles to the analyzed cases to create effective action plans.
- ▲ Roundtable members complete selected readings and prepare custom-designed prework assignments for each session. The continuity, review, and reinforcement of concepts in each meeting enriches learning and supports lasting changes.
- ▲ Members of The Leader's Roundtable agree to total confidentiality to promote and encourage openness and trust during their sessions.
- ▲ Graduates of The Leader's Roundtable return to Chapel Hill for an annual alumni program to further their development and extend their relationships with other top leaders.
