

MONEY, FAMILIES & CHILDREN

Create Successful Families and Businesses

Learn specific techniques for using your money to BUILD YOUR FAMILY and help your children become mentally healthy, productive people. ”

– Hyman Brody, President, Brody Company, Inc.

All parents strive to raise mentally healthy and happy children who achieve at high levels. But with today's challenges, how do we provide our children and families the proper foundation and guidance to live productive, meaningful and fulfilling lives?

Based on decades of consultation with families and organizations, Money, Families & Children provides you with specific principles and techniques on how to build a family with productive and loving individuals. Learn how to instill a healthy work ethic, create intimate relationships and build a sense of self-respect. You will also learn what not to do, avoiding the likelihood of raising children with a sense of entitlement, a false identity or an inability to solve problems. In addition, you will learn how to develop your relationship with your significant other, so that building your family together becomes an effective and meaningful partnership.

Leading a family is one of the most challenging jobs you can have. Money, Families & Children provides you with advanced tools to use your leadership, experience and wealth to lead your family successfully.
