

LEADERSHIP COACHING

Building your leadership skills to become more effective is a continuous process. A highly-skilled coach can guide you through the stages of this process. We offer a comprehensive suite of coaching services, including individual and group sessions to meet a variety of our clients' coaching needs.

INDIVIDUAL SESSIONS

When you attend an open-enrollment seminar, one of our coaches can work with you to master your leadership skills and improve your effectiveness. Both face-to-face meetings and phone sessions are available.

INDIVIDUAL SESSIONS CAN HELP:

- Build Achiever Core Competencies
- Reduce Extreme behaviors
- Improve performance
- Master life transitions
- Balance work and life
- Apply key insights from our seminars

MASTER CLASSES

A Master Class is a half or full-day session with a leadership coach designed to address your unique strengths and weaknesses so that you can build onto your current skills, discover new talents and contribute to your organization more effectively.

MASTER CLASSES FOCUS ON:

- Determining your goals and objectives
- Action planning
- Getting motivated
- Creating a set of critical assignments to implement
- Reviewing your successes—what did and did not work—and uncovering the obstacles that may have prevented you from reaching your desired goals

EXECUTIVE COACHING SERIES

Bell Leadership provides Executive Coaching for C-suite and top-level leaders. One of our skilled coaches will guide you and your executives through a process that helps influence business outcomes.

THIS PROCESS INCLUDES THE FOLLOWING STEPS:

- Design performance goals
- Determine the steps of action and resources to help achieve your goals
- Execute your plan
- Review your progress and steps for continuous improvement
