

MONEY, FAMILIES & CHILDREN

Lead your family toward successful lives

Parents often don't think of themselves as 'leaders' of their families, even though leading a family is one of the most challenging jobs you can have. How do we encourage our children to develop the proper foundation to lead productive, meaningful and fulfilling lives?

Based on decades of consultation with families and organizations, Money, Families & Children provides you with specific principles and techniques to build a family with productive and loving individuals. Learn to instill a healthy work ethic, create open communication and build a sense of self-respect. You will also learn what not to do, avoiding the likelihood of raising children with a sense of entitlement, a false identity or an inability to solve problems. In addition, you will learn how to develop your relationship with your significant other, so that building your family together becomes an effective and meaningful partnership.

Money, Families & Children provides you with advanced tools to use your leadership, experience and wealth to lead your family successfully.
