

THE LEADER'S ROUNDTABLE

A MASTERCLASS IN LEADERSHIP FOR SENIOR EXECUTIVES

The Leader's Roundtable has inspired high-level leaders to learn together, share challenges and embrace best practices for 30 years. Throughout the course of a year, Roundtable members from a wide variety of industries and organizations engage with Bell Leadership's time-proven curriculum and leadership principles to examine the most critical responsibilities of a leader. Guided by leadership development experts with a combined experience of over 75 years, members share ideas, questions and perspectives in a confidential setting with peers who understand the unique weight of their daily responsibilities.

Learn to leverage your time, expertise and knowledge to create the highest degree of impact. You and your Roundtable cohort will gain strategies you can use immediately to build a long-lasting framework to truly lead your organization, not simply manage it.

Build Your Peer Network.

Building relationships is paramount to great leadership. This program creates an engaging environment for senior executives to connect and learn from others that share and understand the weight of their daily responsibilities.

Gain Best Practices.

Learn key principles and best practices that produce optimal results. Bell Leadership leverages more than 50 years of research on the most effective and ineffective leaders with real business application. You will also learn valuable lessons from discussions and case studies with your peers.

Apply Key Principles.

The Leader's Roundtable offers the benefit of spaced learning. The cohort gets together six times throughout the year for 2-day deep dives to go through key concepts. Members are given ways to apply what they have learned within their life and their organization prior to their next meeting. The cohort comes back together 6-8 weeks later to discuss and continue building on what they have learned.

BUILD YOURSELF. BUILD YOUR PEOPLE. BUILD YOUR BUSINESS.

Learn to Lead Like the Best.

The Leader's Roundtable members work hard, have fun, think creatively and build their business and themselves. The results generate permanent changes that produce powerful personal and organizational improvements while growing a trusted peer network.
