ACHIEVERS™

Great Leadership Starts with Achievers

Participants gain a deep understanding of themselves, their strengths, weaknesses, and motivations. They learn to lead like the best in a way that is congruent with who they are. Grounded in insights from the Bell Personality Profile survey, each participant creates a personalized, actionable growth plan. The result: confident, self-aware leaders equipped to drive meaningful results and lasting impact.

SELECTING ACHIEVERS

Hire Smart to Build a Great Company

Having the right people in the right positions both for new hires and existing employees is essential for organizational success. This program offers proven techniques to evaluate candidates, select Achievers and ensure their success in your organization. Learn the skills to screen effectively, assess the match between candidates and the job, and practice these new interviewing skills in a live case scenario.

THE LEADER'S JOB

Maximize Your Impact as a Leader

Leaders must think and act strategically, yet the daily tasks of running an organization often overtake their pursuit of strategic long-term goals and success. This seminar provides a powerful framework of integrated practices for leading rather than managing. Participants assess their impact as a leader and their effectiveness in the "Ten Roles of a Leader" with personal results from the Leader's Job survey (360-degree assessment).

ADVANCED COMMUNICATION

Master the 7 Skills of Effective Communication

Five decades of Bell research demonstrates that a leader's ability to positively and effectively influence people requires exceptional communication skills. This seminar harnesses insights into human behavior and utilizes personal results from the Bell Advanced Communication Survey to provide strategies for building mastery-level communication skills around listening, confrontation, nonverbals, giving and receiving feedback, and more.
